

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy:

Students are evaluated at the end of every Spring semester with the exclusion of MTF evaluated at the end of every semester.

Three criteria to remain eligible for future financial aid:

1) Cumulative GPA –

- 1.8 or better for freshmen (after first year, 2.0 or better is the requirement)
- 2.0 or better for transfer students

2) Completion Rate – successfully complete 67% of ALL attempted credit hours

Hours counted as attempted include:

- All credit hours for which the student enrolls at Ohio State and receives any of the following grades or marks: A, B, C, D (including plus and minus), E, EM, EN, K, KD, KM, NP, PA, U, UEN, NEN, S, P, Blank and/or NG
- Hours forgiven with passing grades under the “Grade Forgiveness” or “Fresh Start” rules (#)
- A mark or marks of W (denoting a class or classes dropped or total withdrawal from the university)
- A mark or marks of I, IX (denoting a class or classes that have incomplete coursework)

Hours not counted as attempted include:

- Courses designated as audit (no credit or grade assigned)

Hours counted as successfully completed include:

- All credit hours for which there is a passing letter grade or mark as reflected in the Policy Section of the University Registrar's website including A, B, C, D (including plus and minus), S and PA
- All marks of EM (credit by exam) and hours accepted for transfer from another institution, K, KD, and KM

Hours not counted as successfully completed (deficiencies) include:

- All credit hours for which there is no grade/notation indicating that the course work has been successfully completed including marks of E, EN, NEN, I, IX, NP, U, UEN, W and P

3) Maximum Time Frame (MTF) – for completion of degree requirement (150% course work towards degree)

Hours counted as attempted include:

- All credit hours for which the student enrolls at Ohio State and receives any of the following grades or marks: A, B, C, D (including plus and minus), E, EM, EN, I, IX, K, KD, NP, PA, U, UEN, NEN, S, P, Blank and/or NG

SAP Appeals:

Available for students to complete. Normally due by the first Friday of the term appealing for financial aid. Consult financial aid for more information.

View SAP status:

Log in to Buckeye Link > View Financial Aid > Current Aid Year > SFA Status Tab

Withdrawing - as noted in requirements, this could affect completion rate and maximum time frame for future financial aid eligibility. Please consult your academic advisor or financial aid.

SEMESTER TIMELINE:

4th Friday of term – Financial Aid Census Date (if student drops below full-time prior to this date, adjustments will be made to financial aid received) If student drops after census date, most financial aid is not adjusted, however, completion rate is affected.

60% point of term (all financial aid considered earned)
